143

Musiq

How many times have I called you
While you were working just to say?
Left messages on your answering machine
About 3 or 4 times a dayThere aren't many more ways
And words that I can say
So I'll just say numerically
From my heart to you 143So many times I bought roses
Just to see that smile on your face
I can't remember how many e-mails I sent you
Just to tell you bout my day
There aren't many more ways
And words that I can say
So I'll just say numerically
From my soul to you 143Girl you know you are so special to me
And you deserve to be treated exclusivelyI treat you like Valentine's Day 365 a year
Make sure that everything you need will always be right here
Now I just refuse to be your typical ordinary
Run-of-the-mill, Garden Variety loverI'll make sure everyday you live will be like Christmas Eve
I wanna make you feel fine just like a summer breeze
Cause I just refuse to be your predictable average
Run-of-the-mill, Garden Variety loverSee sometimes words may get in the way
Of the things that you really, really mean to say
So I wanna take out this time to Make sure that how I really feel gets through to you, yeah
'Cause listen, there aren't many more ways and words that I can say
So I chose to tell you how I feel in a numerical way
Got so tired of trying to find the most complicated ways to say it to you
So I simplified and broke it down in 143And that means I love you
Sugar, you know, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Lyrics provided by http://www.1songlyrics.com/