I Could Always (feat. MNDR) [Curt Reynolds Remix]

Le Youth

I could always lose you
Get out of your head
I don't know what you're used to
But you ain't seen nothing yet
The way the world is spinning
I don't want no regrets
So I could always lose you
That's when I said
That's when I saidI could always lose you
So don't get comfortable
My friends say that you're bad news
That you're bouncing off the walls
You could buy me flowers
But you worry instead
But I could always lose you
That's when I said
I know I could lose you (yeah, aah)
Do you hear what I said? (Good bye, good bye, good bye)
I say that I could lose you (oh oh)
Don't you just watch me walk away (good bye, good bye, good bye)I could lose you in the morning
I could lose you in the evening
Even when I'm sleeping
It seems l can't get no release
You think you're winning
But it's no competition
Either way the decisions
You always come back to me, yeah
Don't think I've been missing
The kisses on my neck
The way your arms surround me
When we're laying in my bed
There are no denying
Your flowers do the best
But I could always lose you
That's when I saidI know I could lose you (yeah, aah)
Do you hear what I said? (Good bye, good bye, good bye)
I say that I could lose you (oh oh)
Don't you just watch me walk away (good bye, good bye, good bye)I could lose you in the morning

I could lose you in the evening
Even when I'm sleeping
It seems l can't get no release
You think you're winning
But it's no competition
Either way the decisions
You always come back to me, yeahAy ay, ay yeah
Don't you run back to me, yeah
Ay ay, yeah yeah, ay yeahI know I could lose you (yeah, aah)
Do you hear what I said? (Good bye, good bye, good bye)
I say that I could lose you (oh oh)
Don't you just watch me walk away (good bye, good bye, good bye)I could lose you in the morning
I could lose you in the evening
Even when I'm sleeping
It seems l can't get no release
You think you're winning
But it's no competition
Either way the decisions
You always come back to me, yeahAy ay, ay yeah
Don't you run back to me, yeah
Ay ay, yeah yeah, ay yeahI could always lose you
