What Would I Change It To (feat. Aluna)

Avicii

Steady yourself even though you've only been fallen
Maybe you're falling but you're still alive
Ready yourself that's quite enough of your bawling
Cause baby you're bawling but you'll surviveLosing is only a sign
It's only a sign that you really tried (really tried)
Losing is only a sign
It's only a sign that you really tried (really tried)
Forever trading places with the same old me
Racking up the cases of who I failed to be
Why would I replace the sky?
Why would I recreate that perfect blue?
What would I change it to?
Oh won't you tell me
What would I change it to?
Oh wouldn't you tell me
What would I change it to?You can copy and paste your head on a new body
But that new body still made of flesh
Cutting corners gets you where you're going
But how you get there is the real testLosing is only a sign
It's only a sign that you really tried (really tried)
Losing is only a sign
It's only a sign that you really tried (really tried)
Forever trading places with the same old me
Racking up the cases of who I failed to be
Why would I replace the sky?
Why would I recreate that perfect blue?
What would I change it to?
Oh won't you tell me
What would I change it to?
Oh wouldn't you tell me
What would I change it to?
