Momma Sed (Alive At Club Nokia)

Puscifer

Wake up, son of mine
Momma got something to tell you
Changes come
Life will have it's way
With your pride, son
Take it like a manHang on, son of mine
A storm is blowing up your horizonChanges come
Keep your dignity
Take the high road
Take it like a man
Listen up, son of mine
Momma got something to tell you
All about growing pains
Life will pound away
Where the light don't shine, son
Take it like a manSuck it up, son of mine
Thunder blowing up your horizonChanges come
(Changes come)
Keep your dignity
(Keep your dignity)
Take the high road
(Take the high road)
Take it like a man
(Take it like a man)
Momma said like the rain
(This, too, shall pass)
Like a kidney stone
(This, too, shall pass)
It's just a broken heart, son
This pain will pass away
