Girl You Know

Scarface

Yeah, what do you mean, where am I at?
I? ll call you backGirl you know, girl you know I, I, I
Girl you know I, I, I love you
Girl you know, girl you know I, I, I
Girl you know I, I, I love youI think if Adam would? ve had another squeeze he might Not have ate those fruits from the leaves of light
Far as Eve, it couldn't have been the more deceiving wife
Seeing nigga had a weak spot, she was rightI just call it how I see it, she in love with him
And he in love too but still be fucking all of them
Can you imagine you in lock with one breeze for life?
Waking up in the morning, laying down at night
With the same face looking at you all the time
Realizing now that happiness was hard to find?
You wanna go out and try to find that smile and face
Plus she's always mad and her sex ain't greatAnd she don't suck dick like she used to do
Force a nigga into trying to find him something new
And on the real, I done seen it when it went like this
But girl, there's one thing happening that you can't forgetGirl you know, girl you know I, I, I
Girl you know I, I, I love you
Girl you know, girl you know I, I, I
Girl you know I, I, I love youBut you can never be my main boo, we can remain cool
But we can't be seen and for this I can blame you
? Cause you got more miles than a F-350
You been ran through and I know for a fact you got history
But since we met I've been hearing your name in certain circles
Pussy got a snap like a turtle
And you can catch a nigga on the late night
Coming out the club, half drunk off Remy and SpriteYou make a man out of quick, that's how you handle the dick
It's unlike no other, she a bad motherfucker
But I'm too strong to let a hoe undercover
Make me look fucked up? cause unlike those othersI done met a lot of freaky girls in my lifespan
So you can't get mad? cause I am not your man
Your understanding was bad, it was not my plan
For you to fall in love with me, girl it's not like thatGirl you know, girl you know I, I, I
Girl you know I, I, I love you
Girl you know, girl you know I, I, I
Girl you know I, I, I love youFor me to say that I do would be a lie? cause I don't Believe no woman is right for me so I won't
Try to talk myself into thinking she is
And if she leaves me for this, that's just one less bitchAnd trust me I tried to be your one woman man

But for every one woman there's a man, home man
Saying, "Damn, I done spent six years in this shit
The first two was cool and then the bitch just flipped?And then that's it, had to make some new plans
'Cause your brand new woman got a brand new man
And you're hurt all along, steady hitting her phone
But a bigger dick and longer bank roll, she goneAnd if I ever said maybe and you thought that I might
You consider, just imagine what my wife was like
If you ain't love my kids like you loved your own
And me unconditionally when I was wrong, I was goneGirl you know, girl you know I, I, I
Girl you know I, I, I love you
Girl you know, girl you know I, I, I
Girl you know I, I, I love youLove you
