Blackout (feat. Steph Jones)

Tritonal

Two hungry hearts a city divided
Pulled in the dark so strong it was violent
Yeah, it was you and me you and me against the world
It was you and me you and me against the world
Don't you worry, baby, there's a fire for us
No, we're not going down in a blackout
And if the stars above me crumble into dust
No, we're not going down in a blackout
System's down the system's down But we made light in a blackout
Oh no, no, no the waves on the wire
Streets growing cold, cold
But we burn, burn brighter
Cause it's like you and me you and me against the world
It's like you and me you and me against the world
Don't you worry, baby there's a fire for us
No, we're not going down in a blackout
And if the stars above me crumble into dust
No, we're not going down in a blackout
We made light in a, in a...
Going down, going down in a blackout
In a, in a...
Don't you worry, baby there'
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by http://www.1songlyrics.com/