Thinking About You (feat. Jay Sean)

Hardwell

I wake up smiling every morning
Yeah, I don't mind sleeping alone
People ask me if I don't miss you
But I ain't been thinking aboutAll the nights we've spent together
And how your skin felt on my skin
And I'm just calling to let you know
Uuuh, I ain't been thinking about youBeen thinking about you
Been thinking about, thinking about, thinking about
I ain't been thinking about you
Been thinking about you
Been thinking about, thinking about
I ain't been thinking about you
I go out every single evening
I drink a little bit too much
People ask me if I don't miss you
But I ain't been thinking aboutNights when we went out together
When it was us against the world
No, I'm just calling to let you know that
Uuuh, I ain't been thinking about youBeen thinking about you
Been thinking about, thinking about, thinking about
I ain't been thinking about you
Been thinking about you
Been thinking about, thinking about
I ain't been thinking about youI ain't been thinking about you
I ain't been thinking about you
No, I'm just calling to let you know that
Uuuh, I ain't been thinking about youBeen thinking about you
Been thinking about, thinking about, thinking about
I ain't been thinking about you
Been thinking about you
Been thinking about, thinking about
I ain't been thinking about youI ain't been thinking about you
