Livin’ up Country

Jake Bugg

For now we're living in the country
I was working up until I fell
I only went down, my ship had already sailed
I met a girl out in Memphis, is was going well I thought at first
She never said bye, she left when she knew I'd fellAnd if I could understand
I'd probably get some rest at least
Would I fight to take a stand,
In the middle of (?)
Never have to look for the man
When I were movin out the country
Found my lucky pardon, I was saved
Couldn't get out, I found not check in the mail
So I went up to Nashville
It was going well but then went stale
I couldn't get by, lucky to live to tell the taleAnd if I could understand
I'd probably get some rest at least
Would I fight to take a stand,
In the middle of (?)
Never have to look for the man
And if I could understand
I'd probably get some rest at least
Would I fight to take a stand,
In the middle of (?)
Never have to look for the manSaid never look back
Never have to look out for the man
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by http://www.1songlyrics.com/