A Death In the Family

The Prize Fighter Inferno

Buy this
With a so long, good night
I wish
You this
All the things that you're hiding from
Hide me in a hole stowed away from nightmares
They lived
Here longer than I haveAnd I wish you the best
And I wish him the best
And I wish you the best
But I wish
With the world to turn this microphone
Till the day your heart explodes
Or the day you get old
In these precious steps to warn this fit
I will carry you till then
From beginning through the end
I'm only wishing you the best (I've been
Walking
One way
To get back to her)
I'm only wishing you
I'm only wishing youWhen I get to hold and see you
Till then
