

What's It Like Now

Mikky Ekko

What's it like now?
Let's just say it's hard to remember, ooh ooh
Every light's out, every store's open, I'm tender ooh ooh
You made me your prophet of stage
Say you shouldn't rattle your cage
Only to realise the hope's still living in the wide world What's it like now, what's it like now
What's it like now, what's it like now
What's it like now, what's it like now
What's it like now, what's it like now
What's it like now?
I become your favourite pretender, ooh ooh
Keep me tied down, keep your mind off of my temper, ooh ooh
One day then I'll laugh in your face
You picture a pastor of grace
Only to realise the future's still out in the wild I sleep in alleyways and waterfalls to find where I begin
I see the future and the past, I feel the present caving in
I wash my hands of it and trade it for a world inside my head
Can't remember what you said
What's it like now, what's it like now
What's it like now, what's it like now
What's it like now, what's it like now
What's it like now, what's it like now
