Sleigh Bells

like the breath on your lips
how come nobody knows
how the chorus should go
how the chorus should go
how come nobody knowsdo you know how it feels when the rain hits the roof
like the roof of your life it's not bad anymorecut the room right in two?
cut the rest into lies
but theres blood on the door and you're failing to smile but you're right on time
remember who you arelike the breath on your lips
how come nobody knowsdo you know how it feels
it's not bad anymorecut the room right in two?
remember who you are
