L'enfant Sauvage

GOJIRA

So long I've been trying to match
It doesn't work
I'm trying, I don't know the aberration of this world
I tried to deal withIt killed a part of me that was raging
The pain is gone, the denial
I ran away from institutions
I owe my self life
There's no way
I will respond to this passion and anger flowing through me
There is light in this world I fight forThe reason you won't leave this cage, betray your child
The desire that you once had to reveal yourself
Forget to create your own lifeAnger
Lies
Denial
The righteous anger boiling inside of us
Won't last forever
Don't fear to let is out Branches have grown through
The wolf is your masterThe sky is all over me
I run on time
