Fading Flower

Yuna

You got that walk walk walk
Got that talk talk talk
Got that swagger-er-er
Such a glamor-or-orYou're like a real life doll
With your hair that falls
Like niagara-a-a
But that don't matter-er-erCause that don't change the fact
That your heart is black
You can't tear me down
Beat me to the ground
Try to block my sunshine
My blue skies with your clouds
And who do you think you are
Yeah that won't get you far
You may think you're pretty
But you'll see that beauty
Is a fading flower
Fading flow-ow-ow-ower
Fading flow-ow-ow-owerYou'll only play play play
If you get your way always
In the center-er-er
Of attentio-io-ion
All the lying
And the cheating
The mistreating
How you even sleep at ni-igh-igh-ight
Blows my mi-i-i-indI wonder when you'll see
That you don't bother meSo you can't tear me down
Beat me to the ground
Try to block my sunshine
My blue skies with your clouds
And who do you think you are
Yeah that won't get you far
You may think you're pretty
But you'll see that beauty
Is a fading flower
Fading flow-ow-ow-ower
Fading flow-ow-ow-owerI spent all of my youth
Trying to be you
Thought that you were special
That you were beautiful
But the more of you I see

The more I'm glad I'm meCause you can't tear me down
Beat me to the ground
Try to block my sunshine
My blue skies with your clouds
Yeah that won't get you far (that won't get you far)
You may think you're pretty
But you'll see that beauty
Fading flow-ow-ow-ower (fading flower)
