Price of Temptation

Rosanne Cash

(Rosanne Cash)Standing on the edge of tonight
Don't know if I'll fall or fly
But that's the price you pay for temptation
There's no other way through temptation
That's the price you payI'll let the rivers cry through my eyes
Watch myself go crazy with desire
But that's the price you pay for temptation
There's no other way through temptation
That's the price you pay
God says here's a lesson and a kiss
You can walk though fire or crawl through this
But that's the price you pay for temptation
There's no other way through temptation
That's the price you pay
