Plain (Nadastrom Remix)

Jesse Boykins III

Never thought Id ever be alone again
Never thought youd go and find yourself a new trend
Shouldve known I was always in the dark with you
Shared less words than even secrets do
Plain
This feelings feeling plain
Plain
I always knew wed be plain
Plain
This feelings feeling plain
Plain
I always knew wed be plain
Did you ever even feel some kind of way
Cause now when I look at you, yeah, I feel plain
Our kisses never hot, never cold
Thought you were the one, you were just her mold
Wouldnt call it stale, wouldnt call it fresh
Doesnt tip the scale, it aint seasoned yet
Wouldnt say its good, wouldnt say its bad
But I guarantee youve already had it
Plain
This feelings feeling plain
Plain
I always knew wed be plain
Plain
This feelings feeling plain
Plain
I always knew wed be plain
