Youth (feat. Khalid & Jessie Reyez)

Shawn Mendes

[Verse 1: Khalid & Shawn Mendes]
Here I am, stuck on this couch
Scrolling through my notes
Heart was broken, still not growing, nah
Waking up to headlines
Filled with devastation again
My heart is broken
But I keep going[Pre-Chorus: Khalid & Shawn Mendes]
Pain, but I won't let it turn into hate
No, I won't let it change me
Never losing sight of the one I keep inside
Now, I know it
Yeah, I know it
[Chorus: Khalid & Shawn Mendes]
You can't take my youth away
This soul of mine will never break
As long as I wake up today
You can't take my youth away
You can't take my youth away
This soul of mine will never break
As long as I wake up today
You can't take my youth away
You can't take my youth away[Verse 2: Khalid & Shawn Mendes]
It's hard to sleep at night
Knowing what's outside
Feeling hopeless
I need focus
You hit me with words I never heard come out your mouth
To be honest
I don't want it, no
[Pre-Chorus: Khalid & Shawn Mendes]
Pain, but I won't let it turn into hate
No, I won't let it change me[Chorus: Khalid & Shawn Mendes]
You can't take my youth away
This soul of mine will never break
As long as I wake up today
You can't take my youth away
You can't take my youth away
This soul of mine will never break
As long as I wake up today
You can't take my youth away
You can't take my youth away[Bridge: Khalid & Shawn Mendes]

You can't take my youth away
Pain, but I won't let it turn into hate
No, I won't let it change me
Pain, but I won't let it turn into hate
No, I won't let it change me[Chorus: Khalid & Shawn Mendes]
You can't take my youth away
This soul of mine will never break
As long as I wake up today
You can't take my youth away (youth away)
You can't take my youth away
This soul of mine will never break
As long as I wake up today
You can't take my youth away
You can't take my youth away
This soul of mine will never break
As long as I wake up today
You can't take my youth away
You can't take my youth away
This soul of mine will never break
As long as I wake up today
You can't take my youth away
You can't take my youth away
