At the End (feat. Nadia Ali)

Iio

When you're away
I'm feeling empty, I lose my mind
But when you're around
I take for granted most of our timeHoney, you say that I'm cold
And sometimes I'm out of control
Baby, you know how I am
At the end, you're always mineI don't mean to when I hurt you
But I need you, I assure you
Just let me be when I'm crazy
At the end, you're still my onlyAt the end, at the end, at the end
At the end, at the end, at the end
At the end, at the end, at the end
At the end, at the end, at the end
Right when you're gone
I really miss you, you got my heart
When you come back
I just wanna kiss you and it tears you apartHoney, do make me stay
Believe me, it's better this way
Baby, I'm true and I'm real
I'm giving you all that I feelI don't mean to when I hurt you
But I need you, I assure you
Just let me be when I'm crazy
At the end, you're still my onlyI don't mean to when I hurt you
But I need you, I assure you
Just let me be when I'm crazy
At the end, you're still my only
Sweety, I'm trying my best
To give you the most and no less
Darling, I'm true and I'm real
I'm giving you all that I feelI don't mean to when I hurt you
But I need you, I assure you
Just let me be when I'm crazy
At the end, you're still my onlyI don't mean to when I hurt you
But I need you, I assure you
Just let me be when I'm crazy
At the end, you're still my onlyAt the end, at the end, at the end
At the end, at the end, at the end
At the end, at the end, at the end
At the end, at the end, at the end
