Late In the Evening

Paul Simon

First thing I remember
I was lying in my bed
Couldn't've been no more
Than one or two
I remember there's a radio
Comin' from the room next door
And my mother laughed
The way some ladies do
When it's late in the evening
And the music's seeping through
The next thing I remember
I am walking down the street
I'm feeling all right
I'm with my boys
I'm with my troops, yeah
And down along the avenue
Some guys were shootin' pool
And I heard the sound of a cappella groups, yeah
Singing late in the evening
And all the girls out on the stoops, yeahThen I learned to play some lead guitar
I was underage in this funky bar
And I stepped outside to smoke myself a "J"
And when I came back to the room
Everybody just seemed to move
And I turned my amp up loud and began to play
And it was late in the evening
And I blew that room away
First thing I remember
When you came into my life
I said, "I'm gonna get that girl
No matter what I do"
Well, I guess I'd been in love before
And once or twiceI'd been on the floor
But I never loved no one
The way I loved you
And it was late in the evening
And all the music seeping through
