Dream About My Face

Antonia

Don't wanna face the dark alone
I wanna breathe with you forever
Nobody else can want you more
To the moon and backSo you can run, run, run, run
Oh, baby, you can hide
You can run, run, run, run
I'll find you, loverYou can run, run, run, run
Oh, baby, you can fight
You can run, run, run, run, runAnd I will follow
You till you dream about my face
I will follow
You till you want me
And I will follow
I'll write your name on every wall
I will followYou till you want me
Cause I need it so much
Cause I need it so much
I need it so much
I need it so muchI see you holding hands with her
But you're not meant to be together
You know it's me you want the most
To the moon and backSo you can run, run, run, run
Oh, baby you can hide
You can run, run, run, run
I'll find you lover
You can run, run, run, run
Oh, baby you can fight
You can run, run, run, run, runAnd I will follow
You till you dream about my face
I will follow
You till you want meAnd I will follow
I'll write your name on every wall
I will follow
You till you want meCause I need it so much
Cause I need it so much
I need it so much
I need it so much
I need it so much
I need it so muchSo you can run, run, run, run
Oh, baby you can hide
You can run, run, run, run
I'll find you loverYou can run, run, run, run

Oh, baby you can fight
You can run, run, run, run, runAnd I will follow
You till you dream about my face
I will follow
You till you want meAnd I will follow
I'll write your name on every wall
I will follow
You till you want meCause I need it so much
Cause I need it so much
I need it so much
I need it so much
