Just Fine

G. Love

I got bills to pay overdue since May
But paying bills ain't something I'ma do today
I'd rather write a rhyme about the life I threw away
Are you the reason that my skies went from blue to gray?Or was it me? Love ain't nothing but a four letter word
But when you heard what I did, all my bridges were burned
And now I'm stuck on the wrong side, it's gonna be a long night
And all the fine girls in the world, they don't mean nothing nowWomen come and women go
But for something real you gotta take it slow
I ain't too smart but one thing I know is
Nobody want to live aloneSo say you love me one more time
Say you need me to get by
Say you love me and I'll be just fine
I'll be just fine, I'll be just fine, I'll be just fine
I'll be just fine if you give me just half of your time
'Cause your kiss is so delicious like this glass of fine wine
I'ma drink it up, see I can't get me enough
And when you're gone, I'll write you letters just to send you some loveAnd it ain't cool what I did but I made a mistake
Then made a fool of myself when I let your heart break
I'm laying with this girl but I don't know her name
And I don't love her half as much as this guitar that I'm playingWomen come and women go
But for something real you gotta take it slow
I ain't too smart but one thing I know is
Nobody want to live aloneSo say you love me one more time
Say you need me to get by
Say you love me and I'll be just fine
I'll be just fine when I know that you're mine again
Let's do this thing one more time again
'Cause I'll never feel fly again
'Til we're walking down the street in time againWon't you throw me a sign again?
I'll write your name in my rhyme again
I'm on the corner and I'm begging for change
Like a bum out of luck, I'm holding a sign that saysWomen come and women go
But for something real you gotta take it slow
I ain't too smart but one thing I know now
Nobody want to live aloneSay you love me one more time
Say you need me to get by
Say you love me and I'll be just fine
I'll be just fine, I'll be just fine, I'll be just fine
I'll be just fine, I'll be just fine, I'll be just fine
