Perfect Stranger (feat. Katy B)

Magnetic Man

I didn't have to turn around
I could feel him in the back of my brain
When I step into the crowd
Something told me that I'll meet you todayYour energy when you touch me
Lifted me off the ground
Your words to me are like musicI don't know who you are
All I really know is there's something in your heart
That makes me feel it's a new start
All I really know is there's something in your heartAre you from another world?
I've never seen someone who looks like you
Beautiful stranger, how do you do?
Told me is there something I could do for you
Your energy when you touch me
Lifted me off the ground
Your words to me are like musicI don't know who you are
All I really know is there's something in your heart
That makes me feel it's a new start
All I really know is there's something in your heartSomething, something, something
Something, something, something
Something, something, something
Oh, there's something, there's something I can see thereSomething, something, something
Something, something, something
Something, something, something
Oh, there's something, there's something I can see thereSomething, something, something
I don't know who you are
All I really know is there's something in your heart
That makes me feel it's a new start
All I really know is there's something in your heartI don't know who you are
All I really know is there's something in your heart
That makes me feel it's a new start
All I really know is there's something in your heartSomething, something, something
Oh, there's something, there's something I can see there
Something, something, something
Something, something, somethingSomething, something, something
Oh, there's something, there's something I can see there
Something, something, something
Something, something, something
