

The Other Guy

B2K

(Verse 1)

Its another day of you trippin out on me

I could retaliate and bring the ghetto outta me

But I feelin you and not the things you do

I would rather set you straight then smack you in your face

This is not your ex-relationship cause all I gotta say is(Chorus)

Girl you just don't realize

you gotta figure out Im not like the other guy

Because I wear saggy jeans tim boots and don't lie like rest do

You gotta figure out I'm not like the other guy

(Verse 2)

there is no reason for all these crazy confrontations lets set the record straight your the only one for me

But true at heart Iam

please just understand

(okay Look)

First I gave you up then I played the role then I fell in love with you girl(Chorus)

Girl you just don't realize

Because I wear saggy jeans tim boots and don't lie like rest do

You gotta figure out I'm not like the other guy

(Hook)

Heartfelt

Unselfish

Love

all thoughts

revolve around you(J-Boog Talking)

Uh

I mean

I just don't understand

I mean

I know what you had and what you been through

But Im here and Im different(Chorus)

Girl you just don't realize

Because I wear saggy jeans tim boots and don't lie like the rest do

You gotta figure out Im not like the other guy
