

Any Other Way

Tenth Avenue North

Don't say goodbye, don't say hello We're just standing on the surface Don't say alright, don't say I know I promise it's not worth it I want to know who you are Even if you're falling apart Reach in and touch your scars
And all the shame you've kept in your heart 'Cause it's not enough
it's not enough
just to say that we're okay
i need your hurt i need your pain
it's not love any other way Let's not pretend Stop your parade trying to convince me That you're alright and everything's ok Do you even know me 'Cause I already know who you are
And all things that kept us apart So reach in and touch My scars and know the price I paid for your heart 'Cause it's not enough
it's not enough
just to say that we're okay
i need your hurt i need your pain
it's not love any other way
A broken and contrite heart
I will not despise come as you are and i won't close my eyes
I won't close my eyes
I won't close my eyes
I won't close my eyes 'Cause it's not enough
It's not enough
Just to say that we're okay
I need your hurt I need your pain
It's not love any other way 'Cause it's not enough it's not enough just to say that you're okay
You needed my hurt, you needed my pain
It's not love any other way
It's not love any other way
Yeah, it's not love any other way
