

All I Want

Anna of the North

All I want, is your love and affection
All I want, is your warmth and protection
We don't have to start a fight
It don't even matter anymore who's wrong or right
But can you stay the night?
All I want, is your love and emotion
All I want, is your warmth and devotion
We don't have to start a fight
It don't even matter anymore who's wrong or right
But can you stay the night?
Can you hold me tight?
Can you stay the night?
Can you hold me tight?
Ho ho, ho ho, ho oh, ho oh
We don't have to start a fight
It don't even matter anymore who's wrong or right
But can you stay the night?
