how am I gonna pull this off man with out soundin dark?this, this is too sensibly for me manhow you gonna hav a dream come true?I use to dream bout crazy little fings like fame in the days hangin outside the off-license.

we use to run around the streets recless with no shame mainly up too no gud a whole world anonsense and wen the girls walk by we wud try to catch their eye and if they aint a show face we wud act imature ova people tryed to tap me girl since I was a kid a couple west girls on my radar I was RAW and I was dead sure that I knew it all, whole world against me attitude I nearly blew it all I find it a real big struggale gettin thru it all

I swear I didnt wanna listen cuz I sure didnt care, not no if a reality id hav 2 prepare cuz money dnt grow on no stick wen its rare me on bro was lukin less than less the lick plus I was growin up life was lukin like a scare how u gonna hav a dream come true?I use to love music it was like my hidden hobbie but I cuddnt get on local radio back then, so I went to north london I travelled to Tottenham to be presise and got sum air time on heat FM then it escalated I was gettin ratings here and ther and carried on untill eventually I was everywhere I started doin all the hot spots ministry ceasers palace p area tannin mc's I did the grim and the glamor I did the port and the plush I didnt hang around I wanted my money in a rush, mind frame in the studio dis stage no time to chat I didnt wanna engage I found my self a new hussel it was beautiful and non like the one before a bit more suitable, the more challenging it got the more I fort it
