Love Me Better (Deepend Remix)

James Blunt

People say the meanest things
I've been called a dick, I've been called so many things
I know I've done some shit that I admit deserves it
But that...that don't mean it doesn't sting
Saw you standing outside a bar
Would have said you're beautiful but I've used that line before
Now I've had my share of shallow nights
'Cause I was scared to get it right
So I was hanging with whoeverBut baby then you...
You love, love, love me, love me better
You love, love, love me, love me better
There's been times I gave myself
To someone else, to someone lesser than you
You love, love, love me, love me better
Love me
Love me better
Love me
Love me betterWhen I met you I was treading water
And baby I know you know I got an eye that wanders
But right now in this car that we're driving to your sister's
All I'm lookin' for is something that's foreverBaby then you...
You love, love, love me, love me better
You love, love, love me, love me better
There've been people that I've loved before
But they were something lesser, 'cause you...
You love, love, love me, love me betterLove me
Love me better
Love me
Love me better
People say the meanest things
Yeah, but truth be told, I don't care what they think
I got someone who is lying in my bed lying right next to me
Yeah she....loves, loves, loves me
Loves, loves, loves me, loves me betterLoves me
Loves me better
Loves me
Loves me better
There's been times I gave myself
To someone else, to someone lesser than you
You love, love, love me, love me better
