

Still Ridin Shotgun

Tyler Wood

She gets mad when I don't pay the bills on time,
Stayed up waiting on me when I got home late last night,
She bends for me but she ain't gonna break,
The more she gives the more I take,
Well anybody else would just walk away,
But she still riding shotgun,
yeah, she's still the one,
That makes my heart beat fast and has my back even when I think she's done,
She's never trying to change me,
Knows who I am,
Even when I'm wrong,
No she dont give a damn,
And whenever I need her smile,
She's always got one,
Yeah, shes still riding shotgun,
I get upset and then I take it all out on her,
She does her best to forgive me for my worse,
What she means to me she'll never know,
The kind of love that don't always show,
Well anybody else would just hit the road,
But she's still riding shotgun,
Yeah she's still the one,
That makes my heart beat fast and has my back even when I think she's done,
She's never trying to change me,
Knows who I am,
Even when I'm wrong,
No, she dont give a damn,
And whenever I need her smile,
She's always got one,
Yeah shes still riding shotgun,
Well Heaven only knows how I got this lucky,
I never seen angel on earth,
But she must be,
Always looking out for me even when her feelings take the backseat,
But she's still riding shotgun
Yeah she's still riding shotgun
Yeah she's still riding shotgun
Yeah she's still the one
That makes my heart beat fast and has my back even when I thinks she's done,
She's never trying to change me,
Knows who I am,
Even when I'm wrong,

No, she dont give a damn,
And whenever I need her smile,
She's always got one,
Yeah she's still riding shotgun,
Right next to me how it's supposed to be,
Yeah she's still riding shotgun.
