

Hustler

Keri Hilson

Heeeeey Hey ey yea
Was I supposed to come so close to loving you? hmmm
That I couldn't see
Was I supposed to drown myself in thoughts of you, to where I could no longer breathe?
You're just a silhouette of a perfect man Cause you take me higher then I have ever been Just to break me down into a thousand pieces
Boy you. make me. wish I. was a hustler
So I could move away (away), cover my shoulders, and I could run away, if I could be a hustler
And I would move away (away), cover my shoulders, and I would run away, (away) ohhh
Such a waste of my time
You are everything I shouldn't be. And how one second's introduction could become a lifetime of misery
You're just a silhouette of a perfect man cause you take me higher then I have ever been just to break me down into a thousand pieces
Boy you make me wish I was a hustler
So I could move away (away), cover my shoulders, and I could run away, if I could be a hustler
And I would move away (away), cover my shoulders, and I would run away, (away) from you
So I could move away (oooh if I could be a hustler) and I could run away (ohhh from this corner you 've got me stuck) and I would move away (2x) boy you make me wish I was a hustler.
If I could be a hustler hmmmm (yea)
And I could run away and I would move away (several times)
