

Playin' the Loser Again

Jimmy Buffett & Bill Withers

Don't break my heart again
Let it in
You don't love me Don't make me start again
This achin' in my heart Don't make me hope again
Knowin' when
You've grown tired of me That you'll just disappear
And leave me waiting here Playin' the loser again Don't give me hope
And take it away
'Cause I'll show my weakness
And beg you to stay
Don't give me somethin'
To build all around
And just for a thrill
You tear it all down
Don't make me dream again
It's a sin to make love to me
And then just disappear
And leave me waiting here
Playin' the loser again Don't give me hope
And take it away
'Cause I'll show my weakness
And beg you to stay Don't give me somethin'
To build all around
And just for a thrill
You tear it all down
Don't make me hope again
Knowin' when
You've grown tired of me That you'll just disappear
And leave me waiting here Playin' the loser again
