See him in the club with his team never stackless
Want what we got, shorty got me hot
It may have something to do with the drop top
Big thang, big man

Got no time to cuddle
Fuck it let me have another drink
Damn how you get to the bar?
Let me think
Line for the bathroom, I ain't waiting in it
To the front chicks hatin'

Shit yes I did, moving right along
Gotta get back before they play the last song
(Last call for alcohol)

Thirty minutes till it's over, better do it
One more drink, one more dance
Papi staring at me in the corner you got one more chance
Gotta eat, head to the diner
