

Something to Write Home About

Craig Morgan

Hello mom and dad, what's been goin' on
I know it's been awhile, since I've written home
I like my new job, sure I like this town
But I finally got me something to write home about She's got long blonde hair, and deep blue
eyes
She likes the music loud and walkin' in the moon light
She laughs sometimes, sometimes until she cries
Oh mom, I'm in love, and dad, I'm sure you'd be proud
'Cause I finally got me something to write home about
I got that raise in pay now aint just getting by Looks like I'm on my way I guess I must be livin' right
Oh if my old friends could only see me now
'Cause I finally got me something to write home about
She's got long blonde hair and deep blue
eyes
She likes the music loud and walkin' in the moonlight
She laughs sometimes, sometimes until she cries
Oh mom, I'm in love, and dad, I'm sure you'd be proud
'Cause I finally got me something to write home about Yeah mom I'm in love, and dad im sure you'd be proud
'Cause I finally got me something to write home about
That girl is somethin' Yeah she's somethin'
