Let the Flames Begin

Paramore

What a shame We all became such fragile, broken things A memory remains just a tiny sparkI give it all my oxygen So let the flames begin So let the flames begin Oh glory, oh gloryThis is how we'll dance when When they try to take us down This is what will be, oh glory Somewhere weakness is our strength And I'll die searching for it I can't let myself regret, such selfishnessMy pain and all the trouble caused No matter how long I believe that there's hopeBuried beneath it all and Hiding beneath it all and Growing beneath it all and This is how we'll dance when When they try to take us down This is how we'll sing, ohThis is how we'll stand when When they burn our houses down This is what will be, oh glory Reaching as I sink down into light Reaching as I sink down into light This is how we'll dance when When they try to take us down This is how we'll sing, oh This is how we'll stand when When they burn our houses down This is what will be, oh glory
