Bounce

LoCash Cowboys

Have you ever seen fifteen people in the back of a half-ton?
Let me tell you girl, it happens.
A little more than often.
Have you ever seen a cooler full of beer disappear in a second?
That's 'cause everybody grabbed one.
Ice melts quick in the hot sun.Well that's every night on the weekend.
Where we come from we're keepin' it real,
Keepin' it loud, keepin' it strong, keepin' it proud.
Keepin' it tough in the back of my truck,
Everybody bounce, bounce, bounce.
This is all night, this is our crowd,
This is our time, this is our town.
Turn it up, bouncin' in the back of my truck.
Bounce, bounce, bounce in the back of my truck.
Bounce, bounce.
Have you ever seen a sunset sittin' on the back of a tailgate,
Cuddled up with your baby 'til it gets late?
Yeah that's the kind of thing that feels great.
We got trucks lined up like boats and party cups.Everybody knows we're keepin' it real,
Keepin it loud', keepin' it strong, keepin' it proud.
Keepin' it tough in the back of my truck,
Everybody bounce, bounce, bounce.
This is all night, this is our crowd,
This is our time, this is our town.
Turn it up, bouncin' in the back of my truck.
Bounce, bounce, bounce in the back of my truck.
Bounce, bounce.We're keep in real, keepin' it wild, keepin' it blue.
Now how bout you?
Keepin' it real, keepin' it loud,
Keepin' it strong, keepin' it proud.
Keepin' it tough in the back of my truck,
Everybody bounce, bounce, bounce.
This is all night, this is our crowd,
This is our time, this is our town.
Turn it up, come on, turn it up,
Bouncin' in the back of my truck.
Bounce, bounce, bounce in the back of my truck.
Bounce, bounce.
