Steppin' Right Along

Bill Withers

Steppin' right along
Like it ain't nothing, baby
Something just, something blew your mind
Something come along
To make you stronger, baby

But you know it got to take timeTalk a little deep

To make you wonder, baby

And it's not that same old lineWhoa, look out nowSomething some time

Come along and blow your mind

Watch out, girl

Somebody hot (hot!)

Make you give up everything you got

Steppin' right along

Like it ain't nothing, baby

Something just, something just blew you mind

Something come along

That kick like thunder, baby

You know got to give it up for them

Right on time'Would it be wise or weak?'

You wonder, baby

Goodbye Reason, Hello Rhyme

Look out, girlSomething some time

Come along and blow your mind

Watch out, girl

Somebody hot (hot!)

Make you give up everything you got

Steppin' right along

Like it ain't nothing, baby

Something come along

And just blew your mind

'Some kind of magic spell?'

You wonder, baby

Make a drink of muddy water

Taste like wineAnd 'Would it be wise or weak?'

You wonder, baby

Goodbye Reason, Hello Rhyme

'Love made me do it!'Something some time

Come along and blow your mind

Watch out, girl

Somebody hot (hot!)
