

Kirby's House

Razorlight

From the stomas came the novation
It rattled the foundations of the house that I live in Now I can't live there anymoreA child sleeps then he awakens
He shrieks until he is taken
To a house he can live inTake him to a house he can live inAnd in the morning when you know it's gonna be alright
In the morning when you know he won't remember a thing
Well in the morning when you know it's gonna be alright
Hush-a-bye, it's gonna be alright
Yeah, I- I get drunk and sentimental
I need a touch that is gentle
Just to take meTake me to a house I can live in
Take me to a house I can live in
Take me to a house I can live inAnd I heard your crooked words about something
So I'm sayin nothing
I know that it's nothin'I can hear it in the house that you live in
Take me to a house I can live in
Take me to a house I can live in
Take me to somewhere I can live
Take me to a house I can live in
Take me to a house I can live in
Take me to a house I can live in
Take me to a house I can live in
Take me to a house I can live in
Take me to a house I can live in Yeah, take me to a house I can live in Ah, take me to a house I can live in
Take me to a house I can live in
Take me to a house I can live in
Take me to a house I can live in
Take me to a house I can live in
Take me to a house I can live in
Take me to a house I can live in
Take me to a house I can live in
Take me to somewhere I can live

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>