

Pirates, Punks & Politics (feat. Perry Farrell)

The Bloody Beetroots

Ask me any simple question
I'm an information contradiction, go
Ask me any simple question
I'll bash you with my fiction diction Pirate, punk, politician
I got you in a bad position
Pirate, punk, politician
I don't need nobody's permission Split your country down the middle Break out your old banjos and fiddles
Disconnect all the angel's souls
Gather up now, lets go
Pirate, punk, politician
I got you in a bad position
Pirate, punk, politician
I don't need nobody's permission Stood you up now with a wink
Got you all to double think
I'll cut your job, I'll raise your rent
'Cause I'm your so-called president Pirate, punk, politician
I got you in a bad position
Pirate, punk, politician
I don't need nobody's permission
Pirate, punk, politician
I got you in a bad position
Pirate, punk, politician
I don't need nobody's permission
