

Like Ice (feat. Jaren) [Marcus Schössow Edit]

Conjure One & Rhys Fulber

When the sun was strong
And shadows grew so long
She stole her way
Into your empty heart And she moved like ice
She oh oh oh oh
She was cool and blue like ice
No flaws on her, no imperfections
She changed your direction
What could you do She was fleet on foot
A litte sleight of hand
Your life became
An hourglass with no sand
Wrapped up safe inside
A place where you could hide
She cradled you
Like your mother's arms And she moved like ice
She oh oh oh oh
She was cool and blue like ice
No flaws on her, no imperfections
She changed your direction
What could you do And she moved like ice
She oh oh oh oh
She was cool and blue like ice
Halfway between heaven and her hands
Was a place for you to land
What could you do
She was someone so undefined
(She was so divine)
She was someone so hard to find
(So hard to find)
You in those lost and uncertain hours
You were so safe in those ivory towers She oh...
What could you do She oh oh oh oh
She was cool and blue like ice
No flaws on her, no imperfections
She changed your direction
What could you do And she moved like ice
She oh oh oh oh
She was cool and blue like ice
Halfway between heaven and her hands
Was a place for you to land
What could you do She oh...

And she moved like ice
