

Castles

Freya Ridings

You left my love, you hit the target
You got that rush and then you walk out the door
You kept me small, is what you wanted
I never noticed You held my hand into the darkness
I didn't care it made me just want you more
My god your love it seems so heartless
I never noticed And I hate that you're gone
And I hate that I don't wanna let go
And I hate that you think that I'm weak
Cause I don't wanna let you know
That I'm gonna build castles
From the rubble of your love
From the rubble of your love
I'm gonna be more than
You ever thought I was
You ever thought I was Each time you left, there was a hunger
I felt so scared, couldn't take anymore
Losing your love, it made me strong
I never noticed And I hate that you're gone
And I hate that I don't wanna let go
And I hate that you think that I'm weak
Cause I don't wanna let you know
That I'm gonna build castles
From the rubble of your love
From the rubble of your love
I'm gonna be more than
You ever thought I was
You ever thought I was That I'm gonna build castles
From the rubble of your love
From the rubble of your love
I'm gonna be more than
You ever thought I was
You ever thought I was Castles
From the rubble of your love
From the rubble of your love
I'm gonna be so much more than
You ever thought I was
You ever thought I was Castles
From the rubble of your love
From the rubble of your love
I'm gonna be more than
You ever thought I was

You ever thought I was I'm gonna build castles
From the rubble of your love
From the rubble of your love
I'm gonna be stronger than
You ever thought I was
You ever thought I was
