

Kiss My Sass (feat. Travis McCoy)

Cobra Starship

They say that kid, he's got...I'm bringing sassy back
I never finish a thought
You can't forget 'cause you know nothing but my name
And I don't want to hear about people I don't know
Not you, not him, not her, no You only see what I let you see
Nothing less and nothing more
What you say is nothing new to me, honestly They say "That kid, he's got soul"
I'm everywhere that you go
And I've been there seen that
And I ain't taking you home, no
And I ain't gonna lie
I can be a nasty guy
So you should probably sit
'Cause yeah my words come kinda quick
And if you don't get it
Let me repeat it
Just forget what you thought You only see what I let you see
Over and over again
What you say is nothing new to me, honestly They say "That kid, he's got soul"
I'm everywhere that you go
And I've been there seen that
And I ain't taking you home But what do they know?
I'm everywhere that you go (and I still got soul)
And I've been there seen that
And I ain't taking you home
Travis:
Here we go
They say that the kid has got more soul than flight club
Can't you tell by the way I use my wall
Travis stay way cool than the hand it look at
Let it bite two times worse than my bark
Yeah it took a little time, but I'm finally here
10 years deep just to make things clear
Now what we got going double B's in the air
Don't get it off your chest like a tight brassiere
Don't regret it
Just let it
Give credit Don't sweat it
You can try
But you just cant stop
Fangs up
Cobra style

Honestly They say "That kid, he's got soul"
I'm everywhere that you go
And I've been there seen that
And I ain't taking you home, no But what do they know?
I'm everywhere that you go (and I still got soul)
And I've been there seen that
And I ain't taking you home I'm everywhere that you go
And I've been there seen that
And I ain't taking you home
