

Goodbye John Smith

Barns Courtney

Hold your head up high
Were you born too old and are afraid to die
'Cause the light is fading out of your eyes
I'll give it all, I'll give it all
Come on feet don't fail me now
'Cause I fall too hard if I hit the ground
And these worn out souls are all broken now
I'll give it all, I'll give it all
Ooh
I'm afraid, I'm afraid, I'm afraid
That I'm falling apart
Ooh
If I don't see you ever again, oh
Where do I start
So come along
So come along
So come along
Barrel deep into the night
'Til you leave the centre of the show behind
And the great white peaks of new islands rise
You'll see it all, You'll see it all
And all these memories come to pass
In a 1965 photograph
And I'll never know how you made me laugh
I'll tell them all, I'll tell them all
Ooh
I'm afraid, I'm afraid, I'm afraid
That I'm falling apart
Ooh
If I don't see you ever again, oh
Where do I start
Hey, hey
Hey, come on stay
Ooh
I'm afraid, I'm afraid, I'm afraid
That I'm falling apart
Ooh
If I don't see you ever again, oh
Where do I start
