

Soulfire

Little Steven & The Disciples of Soul

Stop the world for a minute
Is that a tear I see in your eye?
This is your chance, this is your moment baby
Spread your wings it's time to fly
I've seen em all come and go
And each one takes a piece of you heart
But I know what your dreams are made of
I wait patiently, ready to play my part
If your soul cries out in desperation
And you're breathless from your own fear
When there's nobody left to depend on
I'll be here, right here Chorus:
Riding the soulfire
Riding the soulfire
Look outside the world is changing
Mean spirits and they're insincere
The sky my tumble and the gods may stumble
But I'll still be standing right here
We're all introduced as strangers
But there's mystery that connects us inside
There's an adventure that's forever waiting for ya
But only if your spirit is ready to take that ride
When you've lost your way in the wilderness
Scared, confused and on your own
Feeling betrayed, feeling abandoned
You're not alone, we'll find your way home Chorus:
We'll follow soulfire
We'll follow your soulfire
We'll follow your soulfire
We'll follow your soulfire
As you mourn the ceremony of your innocence
Take my hand, there's a place that I know
The price of salvation is your loneliness
And you can call me when you're ready
When you're ready
When you're ready
When You're ready
When you're ready to go Look outside the world in changing
Oh and not for the better no, no
I know we're stronger together than we are apart
