

Avalon (feat. Myles Kennedy & The Conspirators)

Slash

Through the miles
I cannot escape
My fate I know will come in time
With my back to the wind
I cheat it again
With a smile Forged in blood
Billowing up
The truth I cannot speak
But I made it back
One last time Avalon
It's been way too long
I can see in your eyes
The fire is all but gone
Tales untold
Never to know
Unspeakable until the end
All these mysteries
I'll never speak of again But my love
I hope you believe
Now I'm gonna give you every part of me
I am home Avalon
It's been way too long
I can see in your eyes
The fire is all but gone But please keep holding on Stay
Tonight
I need your love
Don't
Say
Goodbye
My sweet Avalon Avalon
It's been way too long
I can see in your eyes
The fire is all but gone My sweet Avalon
It's been way too long Avalon
It's been way too long Avalon
