

Evaporated

Ben Folds Five

What I've kept with me
And what I've thrown away
And where the hell I've ended up
On this glary random day
Were the things I really cared about
Just left along the way
From being too pent up and proud
Woke up way too late
Feeling hung over and old
And the sun was shining bright
And I walked barefoot down the road
Started thinking about my old man
It seems that all men
Wanna get into a car and go...
Anywhere?
(Chorus)
Here I stand,
Sad & free
I can't cry and I can't see
What I've done
Oh God... What have I done
Don't you know I'm numb, man
No I can't feel a thing at all Cause its all smiles and business these days and I'm indifferent to the loss
I've faith that there's a soul somewhere that's leading me around
I wonder if she knows
Which way is down...(Chorus)
I poured my heart out
I poured my heart out
it evaporated... see?
Blind man on a canyon's edge of a Panoramic scene
Or maybe I'm a kite
That's flying high & random
Dangling a string
Or slumped over in a vacant room
Head on a stranger's knee
I'm sure back home
They think I've lost my mind.(Chorus)
