

Complicated Disaster

Tina Turner

She knows about me I heard about your secret life,
She thinks that you're a family man but you have two babies and a wife
I never thought you would sink this low, Two many lovers in this room I am sever caking Now you're standing in fount of me begging me not to leave
Complicated Disaster,
And I struggle to understand what become of the man
Promise me ever after, I turn away but can't run
You're all that I remember
It been 3 hours since she shared her story in this room
She seems like such a gentle girl you came and left her much
Two soon, you said it lasted just six months, but I could feel her devastation
The fear of being completely wrong has taken over Now you're standing in fount of me begging me not to leave
Complicated Disaster,
And I struggle to understand what become of the man
Promise me ever after, I turn away but can't run
You're all that I remember All the plans we were making just got washed away
With her tears, I am drowning but you can't save me this time
Oh no complicated Disaster And I struggle to understand what become of the man who Promise me ever after, I turn away but can't run
Now you're standing in fount of me begging me not to leave
Complicated Disaster,
And I struggle to understand what become of the man
Promise me ever after, I turn away but can't run
You're all that I remember

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>