

Breath (feat. Nelly Furtado)

Swollen Members

SWOLLEN MEMBERS LYRICS "Breathe" im alive, i can feel the blood rushin thru my veins an thats all i need to know, cuz im not lookin for a change. cuz i got friends and enemies, but it just dont bother me, cuz as long as i believe, i can breathe!metamorphis, battleaxe fortress, four-hundred horsepower full moon the sorceress swollen members an my girl, NF the predators an the terminator the tribes cold breath why we hurt em'later we can do so much damage now, they'll truck em when i hit em so much garbage around yells, bells, and whistles like carnival sounds. phenominal adrenaline from the words of my mouth. how did shayne manage to rap?
with brain damage im phat remain famished and stacked your playin with the praying mantis, infact you gigantic, you sink like titanic panic attack act up and i'm a mac truck crash into disaster smash like master-plaster, punker, ranglin' monster wants to stomp ya crushin cuz i'm vain, question that remains will tomorrow be the same blood rushin thru my veins?i knew this before I knew how to that we are all just wanted to what a deeper selfless to do whether it'd be easy enough to do im servin' em out, im like a crispy creme conveyor belt. with the sync notes swollen like your lymphnodes, we went from instro to intro to instro, coincidentally messin up your mental state, we makin ends glow pacific center?
me an my kinfolk attention nobody can do it like your man mok' my bands dope the tracks all flow im beautiful thats for sure!the harmony queen, the decibal kings, inevitable, we were born to do incredible things, i let it ring like freedom swing letters from my jaw twenty six in the mix we do it better than ya'll.im a neanderthal, your bound ta fall, im wonderful we warned ya all its foreign to y'all its wonderful the underworld beautiful minds, tryin to keep it independant in recruitable times.we crashin' thru you, now feel the magnitude were flashin thru inside of you it has to do with how you do your thing be true to only you well moka only tellin you is take your soul an talent to the next plateau an balance who you try to think of times two
