

Share the Moon

Indigo Girls

I can go one day without calling
Two days without bawling
Three days without missing
But a lifetime of no kissing you
Something that I just can't do
I wish I could be there to share the moon
I got more back for the breaking
More callous for making
A lifetime for the aching
I got no need to run this battery down
I'm just trying to get the stains out
I wish I could be there to share the moon
Hey, la-la, I'm gonna love to you 'til it hurts
So don't mind if I do
Hey, la-la, I'm gonna love you 'til it works
I've got no mind to lose
There's one trash heap burning
And fireflies are returning, nightfall is softly chirping
One trailer light is staying on 'til dawn
I wonder who it's waiting on
I wish I could be there to share the moon
Hey, la-la, I'm gonna love to you 'til it hurts
So don't mind if I do
Hey, la-la, I'm gonna love you 'til it works
I've got no mind to lose
