

Let Me Go (feat. Marcus Bently)

Kaskade

When I looked at myself
I said, "What the hell"
Then I thought you were gone
But I knew you were too good And I said to myself
"Let me go"
And I said to myself
"Let me go" 'Cause you're burning a bridge
In the field that I sleep in
Working a feeling I know I can't keep
And I'm over it, let me go, let me go You were looking at me
Like you knew I was weak
But the harder I try
The more I let you win
And I said to myself
"Let me go"
And I said to myself
"Let me go" 'Cause you're burning a bridge
In the field that I sleep in
Working a feeling I know I can't keep
And I'm over it, and I'm over it Let me go, let me go
Let me go, let me go 'Cause I feel like a fool
When I walk through your fire
I need you to bruise
'Cause I'm sick and I'm tired
Do you hear me now?
Do you hear me now?
(Let me go)
Do you hear me now?
(Let me go) Do you hear me now?
(Let me go)
Do you hear me now?
(Let me go) Do you hear me now?
(Let me go)
Do you hear me now?
(Let me go)
