This Way

Khalid & H.E.R.

[Khalid:] You say I'm trippin', bullshit You're the one to make me do shit You're the one to make me feel it The feeling of stupid I was in your corner When you were putting me through shit Now you wanna leave No, you leaving me was foolishYou left me this scar on my heart And I left you a brand new car How nice of you, the price of true love True love is absolute So what more can I say? You make me this way What more can I say? You make me this way[H.E.R.:] Yeah, all of these excuses Say I'm the one that made you ruthless But you're the reason I'm crazy And with you I feel useless I let you have it You took me for granted Always wanna play the victim When they don't know the truth is...[Khalid & H.E.R.:] You left me this scar on my heart [H.E.R.:] When I'd never take it that far (oh) Why would you say that it was true love If true love is absolute, what more can I say? [Khalid & H.E.R. (H.E.R.)] What more can I say? You make me this way (You make me this way) What more can I say? (What can I say?) You make me this way[H.E.R.:] I tried to stay the night You won't let me inside Oh, you push me away You'll never change Just another fight Between you and your pride

Oh, what more can I say? What more can I?[Khalid (H.E.R.):] What more can I say? (Say) You make me this way (You make me this way) What more can I say? (What more?) You make me this way (way) (What, can I?) Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.
