Home Alone Tonight (feat. Karen Fairchild)

Luke Bryan

Oh
Oh
What you doing in this place?
Well, I could probably ask you the same thing
Another round, girl, what you think?
If you're buying, well, you know I'll drink
So make it seven on seven
Do you want it on the rocks?
A double shot of heaven
Spilling out the top
And we'll go...
Shot, for shot, for shot
'Til we forgot what we came here to forget
Ain't a clock, a tick, a tock, that's gonna stop
A night we won't regret
So put your drink down, throw your camera up
Flip it around and snap a payback picture
Send it to my ex
I'll send it to my ex
And send 'em both a text saying
"We ain't going home alone tonight"
Girl you ain't gotta, I ain't gotta goHome alone tonightSlow country from a cover band
I got you covered if you don't know how to dance
But if you want we could grab a cabGirl we got all night, I got a bottomless tab
So let's go...
Shot, for shot, for shot
'Til we forgot what we came here to forget
Ain't a clock, a tick, a tock, that's gonna stop
A night we won't regret
So put your drink down, throw your camera up
Flip it around and snap a payback picture
Send it to my ex
I'll send it to my ex
And send 'em both a text saying"We ain't going home alone tonight"
Girl you ain't gotta, I ain't gotta go
Home alone tonightIt feels too good to let it end right hereI ain't going home alone tonight
So, let's not let it end, let it end right here
Girl, you're going home with me tonight
So let's go...Shot, for shot, for shot
'Til we forgot what we came here to forget
Ain't a clock, a tick, a tock, that's gonna stop
A night we won't regret

Put your drink down, throw your camera up
Flip it around and snap a payback picture
Send it to my exI'll send it to my ex
And send 'em both a text saying
"We ain't going home alone tonight"
Girl you ain't gotta, I ain't gotta go
Home alone tonight
No, I ain't going home alone tonight
Girl you ain't gotta, I ain't gotta go
Home alone tonight
Baby, don't let me go home alone
Home alone tonight
