

Desperado

Rihanna

Desperado, sitting in an old Monte Carlo
A man whose heart is hollow
Take it easy, I'm not tryna go against you
Actually, I'm going with you Gotta get up out of here and you ain't leaving me behind
I know you won't, 'cause we share common interests
You need me, there ain't no leaving me behind
Never, no, no, just want out of here
Yeah, once I'm gone, ain't no going back If you want we could be runaways, running from any sight of love
Yeah, yeah, there ain't nothing, there ain't nothing here for me
There ain't nothing here for me anymore
But I don't wanna be alone
Desperado, sitting in an old Monte Carlo
We've both had our hearts broke
Take it easy, I'm not trying to go against you
I can be a lone wolf with ya Gotta get up out of here and you ain't leaving me behind
I know you won't, 'cause we share common interests
You need me, there ain't no leaving me behind
Never, no, no, both want out of here
Yeah, once we're gone, ain't no going back If you want, we could be runaways, running from any sight of love
Yeah, yeah, there ain't nothing, there ain't nothing here for me
There ain't nothing here for me anymore
I don't wanna be alone Dear desperado
Yeah, I don't wanna be alone
Dear desperado
Yeah, I don't wanna be alone
If you want, we could be runaways, running from any sight of love
Yeah, yeah, there ain't nothing, there ain't nothing here for me
There ain't nothing here for me anymore
But I don't wanna be alone If you want, we could be runaways, running from any sight of love
Yeah, yeah, there ain't nothing, there ain't nothing here for me
There ain't nothing here for me anymore
But I don't wanna be alone
